

Allegheny County

The Fourth Congressional District includes municipalities located throughout Allegheny County, including the North Hills, Alle-Kiski Valley, and Quaker Valley. Congressman Altmire frequently visits with local residents, tours area businesses, and attends community events. He has held town halls and Congress on Your Corner events in Allison Park, Harmar Township, Natrona Heights, Plum Borough, Richland Township, Ross Township, and Shaler Township, to name a few. Here are additional details about Congressman Altmire's activities in Allegheny County:

Cutting Taxes for Allegheny County Families

Congressman Altmire cut taxes for nearly 540,000 Allegheny County families this year by voting for the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. The Making Work Pay Tax Credit -- which went into effect on April 1, 2009 -- is the largest middle class tax cut in American history. With Americans struggling to make ends meet during this current economic recession, this tax cut will provide tax relief to 95 percent of working families. Helping North Hills Police Departments Purchase Needed Equipment

Congressman Jason Altmire has secured federal funding for both the Shaler and the Ross Township Police Departments to help them purchase new communications equipment. This upgraded technology will make police operations more efficient and improve public safety throughout the North Hills. Town Hall Meeting on Alle-Kiski Valley's Transportation Needs

On April 15, 2009, Congressman Altmire held a town hall meeting with Allegheny Valley residents to talk about local transportation needs. As Congress rewrites the Highway Reauthorization Bill this year, Congressman Altmire will play a critical role in advocating for the region's priorities. For more information, see

Supporting Economic Development in Natrona, PA

Congressman Altmire secured $142,500 in the FY 2009 budget to help transform the old Natrona Ballfield into the Natrona Recreation and Art Park. This remodeled park will be the cornerstone for Natrona's revitalization and will help to attract new families and new businesses to the town. It is expected that the park will also help to lower crime rates by providing young people with a safe place where they can engage in community and educational activities. Meeting with Allegheny Valley Chamber of Commerce

On March 13, 2009, Congressman Altmire met with the Allegheny Valley Chamber of Commerce to talk about health care reform and how he is working to jumpstart America's economy. As Chairman of a House Small Business Subcommittee, Altmire has consistently worked to lower taxes and increase resources for small business owners and local entrepreneurs.

Congressional Art Competition at Northland Public Library

On April 4, 2009, Congressman Altmire hosted an awards ceremony at the Northland Public Library for the 27th Annual Congressional Art Competition. Each year, all 435 congressional districts host art competitions to celebrate the talents of America's young artists. Students from across Pennsylvania's Fourth Congressional District competed in this year's competition. For more information, see Altmire Celebrates the Talents of Western Pennsylvania's Young Artists.

Listening to Local Veterans

This April, Congressman Altmire met with members of the 4th District Veterans Advisory Board at the Springdale VFW / American Legion to talk about what he can do to help western Pennsylvania's veterans. Since coming to Congress in 2007, Altmire has had six legislative initiatives signed into law that improve services for veterans and military families.

Helping Allegheny County Schools Through the Economic Downturn

By voting for the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, Congressman Altmire provided 12 Allegheny County school districts serving children in his district with an additional $16.5 million in federal funding. The funding will help Allegheny County schools prevent teacher lay-offs and continue to invest in important educational initiatives despite the current economic recession.
